Spring 2013 JTC1/SC22/WG21
C++ Standards Committee Meeting

Bristol, UK, April 15 – 20, 2013
(note: this is 6 days: Mon - Sat)

The meeting venue and host hotel is the Marriott Hotel, Bristol City Centre.
2 Lower Castle Street, Old Market, Bristol, England BS1 3AD
http://www.marriott.co.uk/hotels/travel/brsdt-bristol-marriott-hotel-city-centre/

Online booking for the hotel and registration for the meeting will open in November.

The daily cost of hotel rooms will be 99 GBP per night (this includes breakfast.) The nearest recommended budget hotel is: Bristol Hotel (Cabot Circus) – Future Inn Hotel http://www.futureinns.co.uk/bristol-hotels Telephone: +44 (0)845 094 5588

The meeting will follow the week of the ACCU conference (Apr 10th - 13th) and booking will be provided by the same online booking system that the ACCU conference will be using – we plan to provide a single registration for anyone attending both events.

Transportation
Heathrow airport is the recommended airport for most travelers (there is a small airport in Bristol, but only a few destinations are serviced.)
Transit from the airport to the hotel can be by:

Train Bristol Temple Meads station is about 1 mile from the hotel.
Heathrow Express to Paddington then First Great Western to Bristol Temple Meads
Cheaper: Tube into London, then the train from London Paddington as above
More direct: bus to Reading station, train to Bristol Temple Meads
(see www.firstgreatwestern.co.uk and www.heathrowexpress.com)

Coach Direct coach service from Heathrow to the coach station on Marlborough Street, 0.8 miles from hotel (see www.nationalexpress.com)

Car Driving distance approx 100 miles (160 km).
There is car parking at the hotel, at 6 GBP/day.

Taxi Possible, but likely to be somewhat expensive (estimated 130 GBP one way)
