Defect Reports #143 to #178

The following defect reports have been reformatted, and updated to reflect the decisions reached in Amsterdam. These defect reports should be reviewed. I have tried to conform to the original format, but was not always successful. The current format of the defect reports is HTML. Please send any format problems to me at jb@peren.com.

All 178 defect reports have been reformatted to HTML and will be available on the ftp site within the next month.
